

Applying for Universal Credit? We can help with your water bill

We can delay your water bill payments until your first Universal Credit payment arrives. Call us now on:

0800 072 6765

Universal Credit – we can help with your water bill

If you are about to apply for Universal Credit and are worried about your water bill, please give us a call.

We can delay your water bill payments for up to eight weeks until your first Universal Credit payment arrives.

We'll also check to see if we can reduce your bill by switching you to one of our support tariffs so it's really worth getting in touch if you need help with your water bill.

Call us on 0800 072 6765